

John 20:24-31 CSB

But Thomas, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. [25] So the other disciples were telling him, "We've seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "If I don't see the mark of the nails in his hands, put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will never believe." [26] A week later his disciples were indoors again, and Thomas was with them. Even though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." [27] Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and look at my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Don't be faithless, but believe." [28] Thomas responded to him, "My Lord and my God!" [29] Jesus said, "Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe." [30] Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. [31] But these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

After his resurrection, Jesus made several appearances to his followers, as recorded in the New Testament of the Bible. Some of the notable appearances include:

- To Mary Magdalene at the tomb (John 20:11-18)
- To the other women at the tomb (Matthew 28:8-10)
- To two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35)
- To the apostles without Thomas (Luke 24:36-49)
- To the apostles with Thomas present (John 20:24-29)
- By the Sea of Galilee, where he appeared to several disciples (John 21:1-14)
- To over 500 believers in Galilee (1 Corinthians 15:6)
- To James, his half-brother (1 Corinthians 15:7)
- To the apostles on the Mount of Olives before his ascension (Acts 1:4-11)
